ELDER QUESTIONNAIRE FORM

If married, do you and your wife understand that there will be times when it will be inappropriate to discuss confidential shepherding matters with her? YES NO How do you and your wife feel about not being able to share confidential shepherding matters with her?

Are there any qualifications for Elder (1 Timothy 3:1-7; Titus 1: 6-9) that trouble you in regard to your life as a Christian and/or being qualified to serve as an Elder? YES NO If so, please explain.

In what ways are you an example for the flock to follow (1 Peter 5:1-4)?

If you discover that a personal habit of yours is a hindrance or stumbling block to others, what would be your response (1 Timothy 3:3, 8; Corinthians 6:19-20; 1 Corinthians 10:31)?

Discuss your thoughts about the authority elders have and how this authority should be administered.

Describe your normal conflict resolution/management style (1 Timothy 3:2b; Titus 1:7-8). Do you struggle with anger? YES NO If so, please explain.

ELDER QUESTIONNAIRE FORM

Are you willing to direct complaints and concerns to the individuals who can help rather than stir up animosity by aiding in people's bitterness (Matthew 18:15-17)? YES NO Please explain.

Discuss how an elder should handle potentially divisive issues (faith, human rights, political, etc.)?

Discuss participation in inter-denominational or secular events. Where are the lines of fellowship drawn?

In what areas do you "manage your own family/household well" (1 Timothy 3:4-5, 12; Titus 1:6a)?

Lastly, while we all struggle with sin (1 John 1:8), in terms of being "blameless" (Titus 1:6) and "above reproach" (1 Timothy 3:2a), is there anything in your life that if it were made public, would bring shame to the Gospel, this ministry and/or the leadership of this ministry? YES NO Potential areas/issues include struggles with pornography, sexual misconduct, addictions, business mismanagement, integrity/character issues or anything else of this nature? If so, please explain.

I, the undersigned, being a Born Again believer in Jesus Christ, have read, understand, and agree with Calvary Riders Motorcycle Ministry's vision, mission, purpose, beliefs, values, and goals. I also affirm that I have answered the above questions truthfully.
